

DR. JOHN BULL'S TONIC SYRUP
FOR THE CURE OF
NERVOUS AND ACUTE
HILLS AND FEVER,
ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

Author of this celebrated medicine for its superiority over all remedies offered to the public for the BAYLE, SPEDDY and PERMANENT cures of Fever and Chills, he refers to the hundreds of letters from the South and other parts of the country to bear witness to the truth of the assertion that no other will fail to cure if carefully followed and carried out many cases a single dose has been for a cure, and whole families restored to the general health. It is the only medicine more or less effective, and in every case more effective, if its use is continued in smaller doses, more especially in difficult cases. Usually this medicine is given any day to the bowels in order to the patient, however, refractory medicine, after having taken large doses of the Tonic, a single dose of VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS is sufficient. Use no other.

TRUE TEST.

"Repeated chemical tests have placed first one brand of baking powder than another at the head of the list, out of the most satisfactory of all that are in the practical household who use Silver Leaf and never fails to make light and
wholesome bread.
She cannot be impaired upon, and the powder piddler who attempts to palm off something else on her as a better grade
of goods, will have reason to believe that he has missed his calling."

A Lesson for smokers.
When speaking was formerly considered of by the Quakers. It is a pity they did not make it often on smokers, and following as a specimen:
"A Quaker was traveling in a carriage. After a time, observing the movements on the part of a fellow-passenger, he accosted him as follows:
"You, here, seems well dressed, and I suppose this is your first well-bred would not deem myself to do an unpleasant-like action, wouldst thou?"
The person addressed promptly replied:
"I certainly not, if I knew it."
"And suppose this invited me to thy table, wouldst thou think of offering me thy glass to drink out of after thou had drunk out of it thyself, wouldst thou?"
The interrogated replied:
"I should not think of such an offer without first offering thee my glass."
"Still less wouldst thou think of offering me thy knife and fork to eat with after thou had put them into thy mouth, wouldst thou?"
The interrogated answered:
"To do that, would be an outrage on decency, and would show that such a man was out of the pale of civilized life."
"Then," said the Quaker, "with those propositions on thee, why shouldst thou bring me to take into my mouth and nose the smoke from that cigar which thou art preparing to smoke after sending me to smoke from thine own mouth?"
